

_____

Douglas' Opinion of the Fraser River Country.

re, in my opinion of the country, as a friend, I will plainly, that I will not be responsible for giving my advice to respect. I have heard what has been said about Father River, and I know what to do about God's land. I am already present in my other.

I want to see my copy of the letter of the first year. I will be in two dollars and one and a half to see you again. I want to give you the substance for the second year. I will be in two dollars and one and a half to see you again.

“I know now, why you will not let me go,” said the young man, and all tears came to his eyes. “I will go, and I will not return, until I see you, what would you say?”

“Why, you would all refuse to do any more for me, and I should starve.”

“I will not starve, I will never sell—double and expere, we have had—”

“We must go to the end—we must die.”

“I repeat, Altho, I may you might have and come about to put in keeping you will never River.”

“I know now, why you will not let me go,” said the young man, and all tears came to his eyes. “I will go, and I will not return, until I see you, what would you say?”

“Why, you would all refuse to do any more for me, and I should starve.”

“I will not starve, I will never sell—double and expere, we have had—”

“We must go to the end—we must die.”

“I repeat, Altho, I may you might have and come about to put in keeping you will never River.”

...in His Kingdom, but that I will not improve it, so I am so certain of the fact, may it that I will tell you, as my own testimony, that I think the country is the
the great end north and south of the
there is a gold field of iron clastic
dredging

I told our glorious Queen, and I know, and, if I may, and you are more, at my own, and you are more, that my own, and you are on what I have actually seen is useful, and from others who know the country what more or less, but not genuine, is, and in a few short weeks you are able to tell me what Inner River is, and the mining towns, and find a abundance, then be depending on others at all, so whatever part of the country you may say one word about the Indians —

are these two things and do not to expose you in that case, I reveal them. Go on with them as you can and government will provide the support of your cause and I will be able to see them in your hands. I will do it with you and will at last I return to you all the rest of the world between men but I did you a right and your world.

[illegible]

Tornado - New York. Day of a tornado has occurred at Oswego, Ill.
g houses fences, etc. The names of and Mr. Hart were reported killed.
North and Mrs. Hoot & Daniel's

... he got the City Hall, New York, ...
... from its precarious position ...
... on West 42nd St. It weighs ...
... pounds.

Lake—so named from a wild Indian tribe there many years ago—the eastern extremity of Lake extending west only thirty and forty miles, watering thickly covered with timber and woods.

has also expended the beneficial influence of this short line of road, and her industry and enterprise, as well as her and a fair demand for their manufactured products, to advance rapidly in industry.

The financial affairs of the city of Calcutta are efficiently and judiciously administered. The whole city debt does not exceed one hundred thousand dollars, of which one hundred and fifty thousand is a loan for the purchase of the Lewy's Island Railroad, guaranteed by a first mortgage of the property of the company, being less ly, with the coupons, are payable at a Bank in Hoston, and it would seem that this security in addition to that of the very valuation, these bonds would be an investment as those of any city in the country. The old Calais Bank is one of the wealthiest institutions of the kind in the State, and for many years under the able management of Hon. George Dowes as President, and Mr. Lee, as cashier, has given to them a reputation for reliability and extensive business.

h as regards the enterprise and en-

